By the Harriot Packet, Capt. Lee, in 6 Weeks from Falmouth, we have the following Advices, viz.

R O M E, November 26.

THE Neapolitan troops daily increase upon our frontiers, which is the more alarming, because the Princes of the House of Bourbon are resolved to listen to no accommodation, unless, as a preliminary article, we suppress a certain religious Order, which the Pope is not inclined to do. Besides, we learn from Spain, that the King, by the advice of five bishops, has made a division of the effects heretofore belonging to the Jesuits, without letting our court know any thing of the matter.

From the Confines of Russia, Nov. 29.

It is strongly reported that a Russian army, which was assembled in the countries of Casan and Astracan, has suddenly fallen upon Asoph, and taken that fortress, situate on the confines of Little Tartary, at the Mouth of the Tanais or Don.
We wait impatiently for a confirmation of the News.

Sienna, Dec. 3. It is pretended, that the French court will send 30,000 men to Corsica next spring, in order to make an entire conquest of that Island? They write from Bastia, that the French cavalry not being able to find subsistence, had been obliged to return to France. The French have given leave to all ships to bring provisions to Corsica duty free.

Warsaw, Dec. 7. There have been great motions among the Russian troops in this kingdom, in order to form a line towards the frontiers of Turkey. Their places are to be supplied by other troops of the same nation. The former are to be commanded by Count de Solतिकow, and the latter by Prince Gallitzin. As to the main army, which is to endeavour to penetrate into some of the provinces of the Ottoman empire, in order to make that country the seat of war, it will be under the command of the Count de Romanzow.

We learn by several letters, that 500 of the Confederates of Bar are returned into Podolia under the command of the Sieur Powluski. They summoned General Witte, who commands at Kami-nieck, to surrender the place, but he made answer that he regarded no orders but such as he received from the King or the War-office, and that if his fortress was attacked, he would defend it to the last extremity.

Frankfort, Dec. 31. Letters from Italy advise, that 700 troops of a certain power having been discharged, have entered into the service of Paoli, and that, that General has received some considerable succours both of ammunition and money.

Warsaw, Dec. 3. We have lost all hopes of keeping the various Confederates quiet, either by intreaties, or force of arms; it seems that they become now the more obstinate, falsely imagining, that Russia will be obliged to recall her troops to oppose the Turks, and that the whole of the Nobility will mount their horses, and by those means, tranquility and concord will return to this Republick.

From the Frontiers of Russia, Dec. 14. Hostilities are already begun on the Boristhenes, or Nieper, which the Tartars have passed, and together with the Confederates, have entered Poland, where they plunder the country without mercy.

Warsaw, Dec. 14. Two regiments of Prussian cavalry began their march, on the 3d instant by Driessen into Great Poland, in order to disperse the Confederates, &c. who are making incursions into that province as far as Pomerania.

Dec. 16. The Confederates of the Sieur Malzewsky fell the 4th inst. upon the little town of Zirke near the Wortha, and demanded of the inhabitants a contribution of 20,000 florins, besides all the corn and forage they took away with them; but the Administrator having, not long before their arrival, carried off all the cash to Driessen, these Malcontents destroyed the cattle and most of the houses.

Paris, Dec. 19. Some letters from Poland advise, that the Empress of Russia will command in person her army against the Turks.

Berlin, Dec. 20. The 25th of last month, a troop of 80 or 90 men, commanded by Capt. Rust-kowski, surprised Justrow, a little town of Polish Prussia, not far from the frontiers of Pomerania, and which was chiefly inhabited by Dissidents, where they attempted to exact a contribution of 3000 ducats, which at last they reduced to 100. Mr. Willich, rector of the protestant church at Zalfrow, having taken refuge in the house of a Physician; Lieutenant Mowrowski and some soldiers seized the Doctor, bound him, beat him in a barbarous manner, besides forcing him to give them all the money he was able to procure. Mr. Willich being discovered by Mowrowski and his gang, they treated him for some time in the most cruel manner, cut off his left hand, and at last barbarously murdered him in cool blood. Capt. Rustkowski attempted to set fire to the village of Hobensier, because the inhabitants refused to mount their horses, and join his corps.

Berlin, Dec. 20. The King has made such good dispositions on the frontiers his dominions on the side of Poland, both in Silesia, and Pomerania, that it will be a difficult matter for the vagabonds of Poland, who call themselves Confederates, to commit any excesses there.

Hamburgh, Dec. 23. A letter just received from Holangen, a small town in Lithuania, dated the 14th inst. advises, that the day before, a Russian courier passed by there, in his way to Petersburg, with advice, that Gen. Romanzow had beaten a considerable body of Turks near Cathariembourg, killed 2000 of them, and taken 1800 prisoners, (among whom were two Pachas) together with all their artillery.

L O N D O N,

Dec. 20. We are informed that a certain very extraordinary and popular matter is ordered to be heard on the 16th of next month, when the accused party is to make his appearance and enter into his defence.

Dec. 24. The Empress of Russia's declaration of war against the Turks has already appear'd in Poland, where fifty thousand troops are speedily expected from Finland, Ingermania, and Livonia, besides twenty thousand Calmucks.

Dec. 27. The Hon. Commodore Byron is appointed Governor of Newfoundland. — The above Gentleman greatly distinguished himself for his good Conduct in his late Voyage round the World.

All the Judges (those of the King's Bench excepted) are ordered to attend the 16th of January, when a Writ of Error is to be considered.

Dec. 29. A letter from Balagna in Corsica, dated November 28, gives the following account of the late attack of the French on Isola Rossa, or the island of Rouge, viz. "The French arrived before the place on the 17th ult. with a squadron of thirteen men of war and transports; they penetrated as far as the village and the redoubt adjacent to the sea; they there made a brisk attack, but our men gave them such a smart and continual fire, that after an engagement, which lasted two hours, our troops, assisted by the inhabitants of the village, forced the enemy to retire, and return on board their vessels. They had, in their retreat, many soldiers killed and drowned. Their loss is computed to be nine hundred men, either killed or wounded. Among the troops which had embarked on that expedition, the Royal Italian regiment has suffered most. The number of the grenadiers of the old Marine is considerably diminished; and the regiment of Tournais is almost entirely destroyed. It is said that, in order to make a diversion, the Fusiliers of those two regiments were, conjointly with the garrison of Calvi, to undertake an expedition against Lummio, but as no particulars are come from thence, it is much doubted whether such an expedition has taken place. It is more certain that two new battalions of French troops are arrived at Calvi. Gen. Paoli has so well provided for Isola Rossa, that no surprise is henceforth to be feared. Many brave officers, who at their own expence, recruit men for the defence of the common cause, come every day to offer their services to the General, who is in no want of money. Many English Noblemen and Gentlemen, who take a great interest in our welfare, are continually giving us fresh proofs of their munificence: Every now and then some of them repair to our chief; and Lord Pembroke, who is much attached to him, is now in this island."

"After the repulse the French met with at the island of Pietra, they proceeded with thirteen ships to the Island of Rouge, situated at a little distance from the other, which the Corsicans have endeavoured to render impregnable, for the protection of their magazines. The ships advanced in three divisions towards two eminences, which are well fortified, and command the town, situated at the end of a canal between them. One of the divisions secured the bridge of communication, whilst the second landed the troops, and the other placed near the town. At first the French drove the Corsicans from their posts, and penetrated even to the Tower; but their impetuosity did not discourage the Corsicans, who returned to the charge, made 500 prisoners, killed near 700, and obliged the rest to retire to their ships."

A letter from Warsaw, dated Dec. 7, says, "Prince Reppin, the Russian Ambassador, received the 4th of this month an elzaferte from Great Poland, with advice, that Major Drevitz had surprised and defeated the body of Confederates under the orders of Marthal Malczewski. He killed upwards of 200 men, taken pieces of cannon, some colours, and all their baggage; and pursued the fugitives as far as Lowfentz, where they dispersed."

We are assured a very great personage has lately expressed the most earnest desire to have the disputes between Great Britain and the Colonies immediately settled upon the most amicable and lasting foundation.

Dec. 31. It is said that a great personage's orders to one of his first servants, relative to American affairs; were, "Let the dignity of government be exerted with firmness, but moderation: and for past offences, let justice, if possible, give full place to mercy."

It is now with certainty said, that a cessation of arms will immediately take place between Paoli, the Defender of Liberty, and the French troops in the island of Corsica, through the intercession of a certain power. [Improbable.]

Considerable bets are laid that Mr. Wilkes will be Lord Mayor of London before the expiration of five years.

We are told that the Duke of Cumberland will not go to sea again till the month of April; and there is some talk that his Royal Highness has expressed a great desire to go to America; which the politicians say would, if carried into execution, be a very sagacious step.

Yesterday Mr. Wilkes received the sacrament in the chapel of the King's Bench prison, in order to qualify him to be chosen alderman of the ward of Farringdon Without.

Yesterday several members of a very numerous society, called the Lumber-troup, were sent to Mr. Wilkes to invite him to become a member of that body, which he politely accepted, and was admitted with the usual formalities: They assured him, in the name of the troop, of their interest in favour of his election for alderman of Farringdon ward Without.

Though a certain voluntary exile hath reaped no kind of benefit from the waters of Bareges, yet there is no talk of his returning home, as his physicians are of opinion, that any foreign climate is much better for his health than that of England.

We hear that the subscription which has been opened at the west end of the town, to support

Paoli and the brave Corsicans, in their noble struggle for liberty, fills a page; several considerable sums having been subscribed.

At the village of Wainsford in Hampshire, there is now living one Peter White, in the 95th year of his age, who was born deaf, dumb, and without legs or arms, which are supplied by stumps of about four inches.

Extract of a letter Lancaster, Dec. 24.

"Our joy here for the success of our friends in Middlesex and Cumberland has been almost excessive. We now hope arbitrary power, that horrid monster, will less daringly stalk in this country, and trust it will soon totally disappear, never more to shew its tremendous form upon English ground."

"This county and its boroughs having suffered greatly by riots and hired mobs, instructions are preparing to be sent to the representatives to promote a strict enquiry into the causes of the late shocking transactions at Brentford and St. Georges's, Fields; and we presume every other true English county and borough will do the like."

Jan. 3. Letters from Corsica, dated Dec. 4, bring no material advices; the French seemed inclined to continue quietly in their winter quarters; and the Marquis de Chauvelin was dangerously ill of a violent quinsy, for which he had been blistered, but there was but little hopes of his recovery.

"There seems now but little hopes of pacifying the rebellious Poles, on the contrary, their obstinacy rather increases by the groundless opinion they persist in, that the empress of Russia will be obliged to draw her troops out of Poland, in order to face the Turks. Should that happen (which is not probable) an universal rebellion instead of universal peace must be the consequence. It is said some Prussian officers with a small detachment are come to Lubawa in Polish Prussia, to mark out the ground for an army in that neighbourhood."

The report of approaching changes in the Administration continues still stronger than ever; and from the numberless consultations lately among the Great, there is little doubt, but that something of that kind is in agitation. Among others it is said, that the so long expected removal in the Treasury board is effected. The D. of G—— will no longer have any share in the Administration; and Mr. G. G—— will be appointed chancellor of the Exchequer and first lord of the Treasury. Other changes are to take place for the introduction of his friends, but not to the exclusion of the Bloombury connection.

Jan. 4. Letters from the Hague mention, that a certain foreign minister has hinted, that a passage would soon be demanded for the troops of a certain power through the territories of the States General.

Jan. 4. It is reported, that the Russian Court has demanded assistance from hence; and has requested that our aid may consist in fourteen ships of the line, to serve against the Turks. This claim is said to be in consequence of a Treaty of Alliance, made since the last war, and the demand is said to be now under consideration.

Letters from Petersburg mention, that the Empress of Russia has ordered two Merchants in London to pay Dr. Dimsdale 10,000 sterl. upon his arrival in London, and granted him 500l. per annum during his life. She has likewise made the Doctor Physician to herself and the Grand Duke; also appointed him Privy Counsellor of State, and created him Baron of the Empire of all the Russias.

"The French are excessively chagrined at the ill success of their troops in Corsica; they talk big, however, and say they shall make a complete conquest of that island next summer; for that they shall have an army there of thirty thousand good troops early in the spring. But you know, Sir, how the French will vapour and gasconade; and this is certain, that if they were to send such a large body of forces there, they could not possibly find subsistence for them upon that island; and where else can they get provisions for the maintenance of such an army? I with the Corsicans well; they are a brave people, and, with a small assistance, might find the French employment for a long time. They fight in defence of their freedom, and in such a glorious cause will not Englishmen afford them some little assistance?"

Jan. 3. The Turks begin already to see that they have been misled by the rebellious Poles, and had given too much credit to the false accounts of the views of the Russian court, and that the great step they had taken of breaking friendship with Russia was too hasty, and as they repented of the same, they wish affairs could be amicably settled; to which purpose three articles are proposed by the Turkish court; viz. 1. That the Russians should quit Poland this winter. 2. That an amicable Dyet should be held in the spring. 3. That the King should remain on the throne, but without the aid of Russia, as the Porte would be guaranteed. But affairs are too far gone to be easily settled; at least these articles do not appear sufficient to accomplish it, besides a Turkish guarantee is not necessary to keep the king of Poland on the throne; and it is well known that her Imperial Majesty has declared more than once that she will not desist till the troubles in Poland shall subside, and peace and tranquillity be restored.

Yesterday Gold rose One Shilling per Ounce, so that it now sells for Four Pounds Two Shillings the Ounce. Silver also rose at the same Time One Penny per Ounce, so that it now sells for Five Shillings and Ten Pence per Ounce, which is more than it has sold at for many Years past.

"We this moment receive advice, that a courier passed through Polangen (a small town in the grand Duchy of Lithuania) last Tuesday, going to Petersburg, with the news, that General Romanzow had entirely defeated by a considerable corps of Turks near Catharinebourg, having killed 2000 of them, made 1800 prisoners, amongst whom are two Pachas, and taken all their artillery."

"Prince Francis Sulkowski, who was at the head of some Confederates of Great Poland, having put in march 400 men, was intercepted and defeated by the Russians, his whole troop being cut to pieces or dispersed, and the Prince himself with great difficulty retired to Pletschen."

The following Card has been sent to an eminent Banker in Fleet-street:

"Lord ——'s most respectful Compliments to Mr. ——; and begs the Favour of him to exert his utmost influence to prevent Mr. Wilkes's being elected an Alderman."

Yesterday in the forenoon a wardmote was held at St. Bride's church, Fleet-street, for the election of an Alderman for Farringdon ward Without, in the room of the late Sir Francis Gosling: the candidates were John Wilkes, Esq; and Mr. Bromwich, Paper-Hanger, on Ludgate-hill, when the majority of hands appeared greatly in favour of Mr. Wilkes; but a poll being demanded for Mr. Bromwich, it began at one o'clock, and on closing the books at three, the numbers were for John Wilkes, Esq; 255; for Mr. Bromwich, 69; upon which the latter resigned, and Mr. Wilkes was declared duly elected.

Jan. 5. On Tuesday a Gentleman was sent with a message to John Wilkes, Esq; from the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, acquainting him of his being elected Alderman of Farringdon Ward, Without, in the room of the late Sir Francis Gosling, Knt. and desiring him to appoint a day to be sworn in. Mr. Wilkes received his Lordship's message with the highest regard, and begged the Gentleman to return his most grateful and sincere thanks to his Lordship for the great candour he had shewn on the day of election, and to inform him that he hoped that he should have it in his power to pay his respects to his Lordship at the Mansion House on Tuesday the 24th inst. and to be sworn in at Guildhall the same day.

Last night the bells of the several parishes of St. Bride's, St. Sepulchre's and St. Mary-le-Bow, rang till near one o'clock in the morning, on account of Mr. Wilkes's being elected alderman of Farringdon Without; but the churchwarden of St. Dunstan's in the West would not permit the bells of that parish to be rung, because Sir Francis Gosling, the late alderman, is not yet buried.

Yesterday at ten o'clock a gentleman in Doctor's Commons had an alderman's gown, value 40l. and upwards, brought home to his house, in order to be presented to John Wilkes, Esq; in case of his election, and it was accordingly presented to that gentleman last night.

We hear that an eminent goldsmith of this city will shortly present Mr. Alderman Wilkes with a superb gold chain of the most exquisite workmanship.

This morning Mr. Alderman Wilkes, attended by several gentlemen of distinction, walked for a considerable time in the garden belonging to the King's Bench prison, in his new alderman's gown.

Letters from Warsaw, dated the 7th of Dec. are filled with the accounts of the enormities committed by the Confederates in Great Poland; they have been lately joined by a body of Tartars, and a detachment of them have fallen upon the estate of Mr. Gyziak at Wyssogrod, which after pillaging, they murdered that Gentleman, and all his tenants and domesticks.

Letters from Paris say, they have accounts from Baskia, that notwithstanding the rigour of the season, General Paoli daily attacked their quarters, and that a great sickness prevailed among the French troops.

We hear an enquiry will soon be made concerning the embezzlement of immense sums.

Jan. 10. A letter from Vienna, dated Dec. 20, says, "According to accounts from Silesia, a body of 30,000 men have received orders to be in readi-purpose."

It is given out that some changes in his Majesty's principal Governments in North America will soon take place.

Jan. 12. It is given as a reason, to the question why the changes in the Ministry have not been yet declared, that the person who is to have some of the highest posts, before his dismissal from office in 1764, said something to a great personage, that gave occasion to the latter to say, "he should never do business with him again." However, measures are now pursuing to bring about a reconciliation; and which, if not effected, will overturn the present plan for a new Ministry.

A large quantity of brass and iron ordnance, warlike stores, and ammunition, have been weekly exported from the river for Portugal, ever since the peace, where it is said a magazine is forming for the use of the Family Compact, in case there should be another rupture with Great Britain.

According to letters from Leghorn, General Paoli has now a number of Scotch Highlanders in his pay, several of whom had served in the last war.

We hear that a Gentleman of great consequence in North America has wrote to a correspondent here, requesting him to wait on Mr. Wilkes, and obtain his leave for an eminent artist to take his Portrait, which is intended to be sent to Boston, in order to be hung up in the public Hall.

Capt. Berrian acquaints us, That on the first of December last, there was a very violent Gale of Wind on the Coast of Holland, in which Capt. Stout, in the Ship Julius Cæsar; the Brig Speedwell, Capt. Palmer; and the Brig Bumper, Capt. Harrison, all of this Port, were drove ashore, in the Texel; that the Ship was beat to Pieces in a short Time, but that it was not known whether the two Brigs would be got off again.

Extract of a Letter from Aberdeen, dated Nov. 18.
Captain Herdman from Virginia, is lost Ship back of the Orkneys.—Mr. Walker's Son Alexander, and a great many more Gentlemen's Sons were to this Place.

Tuesday the 28th Ult. a most audacious Hussy, had the Honour of being mounted on an elevated Seat in a Cart, and carted round the Town, and afterwards receiving 39 Lashes, well laid on, at the public Whipping-Post.—Her Name is said to be Murray, and was convicted of making too free with fundry Goods to which she had no Right:—She appeared to have been an old Offender, and had several Times been in Bridewell before, on Account of her Dexterity, which, we flatter ourselves she will now leave practicing.

Carolina.

On Sunday Se'nnight the 26th Feb. between 3 and 4 o'Clock in the Afternoon, at about half Ebb, the Schooner Mary, Capt. Crisp, from New London, bound to this Port, having 19 Hogheads of Sugar, and some other Goods on board, in coming thro' Hell-Gate, the Wind's suddenly dying away, was driven by the Current on the Grid Iron Rock, where, as the Tide fell the lay more and more on her Side, till there was too much danger of her turning over, for any Person to venture on board, or near her. Soon after the Accident happened Capt. Crisp had procured 2 Petty Augers and 6 Men, to assist in getting her off when the Flood made.
The People were obliged to quit the Schooner too precipitately to save any of the Goods on board; but waited at a little Distance in the Petty Augers.

It was low Water at about half after 9, and very dark, at 10 the Tide having flowed considerably; the Schooner suddenly overlet, or fell on her broad Side from the Rock, and immediately disappeared.
Part of her Stem has since been found on the Long-Island Shore, but nothing else of either Vessel or Cargo.

On Tuesday last died of an Inflammation in

POETS CORNER.

An Epigrammatical Prophecy, occasioned by a Report of the D—e of G—n's new House being tumbled down.
BEWARE (thy Proverb faith) to bring Old House about your ears!
 If that be thought a dang'rous thing, What must be now our fears?
 Our St—m—n's House is tumbled down, A House both grand and new;
 Mayn't this portend, to B—n's Crown, Some Mischief that will brew?
 Our Colonies, suppose, its Wall, But late and newly plaster'd, Which, with Oppression, soon may fall;
 With hard blows crack'd and master'd.
 The Fabric of our Empire, then,
 Will tumble to the ground;
 And hid shall be great Order's chain, In one disastrous mound.

THE Public is hereby informed that the Grammar School, near the town of Hack-sack is still continued, and that a large, commodious and elegant edifice is erected for the better accommodation of the scholars.
 The place is in all respects well calculated for a public school. Boarding is as cheap, and as reasonable as can be desired: there is little opportunity of contracting vicious habits, and the inhabitants are so envious to prevent them, that Peter Zabrickie, Esq; & other residents in the place, have voluntarily engaged to exert themselves, in conjunction with the teacher, for the preservation of the morals of the youth, and for checking the first symptoms of vice.
 Notwithstanding the malevolent insinuations that have been industriously propagated with regard to the method of instruction practised by the subscriber, several gentlemen both of abilities and figure, have expressed their highest approbation, both of the method of tuition and progress of the youth under his care: nor can he, by carefully observing the methods of others, find, that he has omitted any thing in his plan, (since he has had the liberty of choosing for himself) which others have retained. But as he has not the talent of puffing himself into fame, he must leave the proof of his assiduity and diligence to the best test, experience.
 He returns his most hearty thanks to those who have already entrusted him with the education of their children, and hopes by his care and pains to merit the continuance of their favours.
 Navigation, the Italian method of book-keeping, surveying and other branches of the mathematics, are also taught, at reasonable rates, by and an orchard of about 100 large apple-trees, with some peach-trees, plum and cherry-trees; it lies about a mile and half from the bay by Chingarous point, where is plenty of fish, oysters and clams, and about a mile from a grist-mill, and half a mile from a saw-mill: Whoever in-
